Alfred Dunhill Links Championship Daily News & Order of Play

ROUND 3, SATURDAY 28 SEPTEMBER, 2019

GRADUATION DAY FOR JORDAN

Matthew Jordan was invited to play in the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship and now the 23-year-old Englishman leads at the halfway stage – and behind him a trio of Scots are chasing a first home win since Colin Montgomerie in 2005

Matthew Jordan moved confidently up in class from the Challenge Tour to take the halfway lead into today's third round of the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship.

The 23-year-old from the Wirral shot a 64 on the Old Course for a 36-hole score of 14-under-par and a one-shot lead over Scotland's Calum Hill, England's Matthew Southgate and Joakim Lagergren of Sweden.

The loudest cheers from the Scottish galleries came for three of their own: Hill, Russell Knox and Richie Ramsay, who all strengthened their challenge and offer the prospect of a first home win since Colin Montgomerie in 2005.

Hill, 24, who is currently No 1 on the Challenge Tour, is from nearby Kirkcaldy. He said: "It's always nice to be at home and play in front of family and friends and it's even better that I played well and they can enjoy themselves because of that."

Hill, who received a sponsors' invitation like Jordan, is trying not to get carried away as today he will be playing Carnoustie, the toughest of the three courses.

"Whatever my position right now, it's probably slightly higher than those that have started on Carnoustie. After three rounds, I think you can look at your position a bit better and judge what you need to do for the final day."

In a congested leaderboard, Justin Rose is two behind after a 64 at Kingsbarns, had an eagle and nine birdies, but it could have been better had he not had a double bogey at 11 and a bogey at 15.

BILL MURRAY'S SPECIAL DELIVERY

Wherever actor Bill Murray goes, he leaves memories behind him.

None more so than for 17-year-old Laura Bremner, the scoreboard carrier in his fourball at Carnoustie yesterday.

As they passed one of the small huts on the course that serves food, Bill asked her if she wanted a hot dog? Laura, a pupil at Carnoustie High School, replied yes.

She said: "He dropped the first one and then went back in to get me a second. Then he said 'take your time, eat it and enjoy it'.

"I've seen Ghostbusters. It's amazing. He's a friendly, funny guy. I'm a bit overwhelmed actually as I was carrying the scoreboard for Justin Timberlake yesterday!"

Murray and his partner, the American professional D.A.Points, are on 14-under and still have a chance of making the cut in the Team Championship. Points is another who will never forget his first encounter, because it turned into one of the most memorable weeks of his life.

Points and Murray joined up for the first time at the 2011 AT&T at Pebble Beach where the pair not only won the pro-am title, but Points recorded his first ever victory on the PGA Tour, edging out Hunter Mahan by two strokes.

"2011 was the first time I got to meet Bill. I was a big fan of all of his movies and now that we have got to spend more time together, I'm a big fan of him as a person."

Since then, they have been regular partners at Pebble Beach, but this is the first time Points has played the Alfred Dunhill Links.

"I really enjoy this format and being around Bill and the rest of the amateurs. It's a close-knit group and I'm really enjoying my first time here."

It took Points a while to come to terms with Murray's sociable demeanour on the course, with the actor regularly joking with galleries.

"Once you are around it a couple of times, you get to know when he is going to crack a joke or engage the crowd. He always wants to keep it light and funny and make sure the crowd has a good time."

FOCUS PAYS OFF FOR McFADDEN

Regular partners, Robert Rock, pictured right, and Westlife star Brian McFadden, had one of the rounds of the day in the Team Championship with a betterball 61 at Carnoustie, generally agreed to be the most difficult of the three courses.

Brian says: "Golf has become a massive part of my life. It's right up there with music. I played golf as a kid, then took it up again about seven years ago. I'm very competitive."

McFadden is a firm believer that the camaraderie of the event helps to improve his golf and it showed as he and Rock moved up to second in the Championship on 20-under-par, one behind leaders Scott Jamieson & Cian Foley and Berry Henson & Liam Botham.

TEAM JUSTIN FIND PERFECT HARMONY

As Rose mounts a challenge with nine birdies and an eagle, his superstar partner has the moves to get them out of trouble

Justin Rose went out in 28 at Kingsbarns before carding a 64 that included nine birdies and an eagle to leave him two shots off the lead – so he was impressed that his amateur partner, Justin Timberlake, got onto the scorecard at all.

The two Justins have teamed up before, at the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am in the United States, and that chemistry was on display yesterday as they finished on 16-under in the Team Championship and firmly in contention to make the cut.

On the rare occasions when Rose's focus slipped, Timberlake stepped into the spotlight – never more so than at the 11th when, as Rose fell to a double bogey, the singer and actor rolled in a monster putt from 50 feet.

"I gave him the opportunity on 11," said Rose. "I thought 'he needs to do something today' and he stepped up."

"It was fun. It was hard for him to get on the card with me making so many birdies, but every time I made a mistake, he was there to back me up. He improved me three shots today, which is pretty good on a 64."

Tony Finau is a shot behind Rose after a 66 at Kingsbarns – only a double-bogey as the rain hammered down on the 15th prevented the American Ryder Cup star from reaching halfway in an even stronger position. But he was happy to be in the pack as he prepared for back-to-back rounds at St Andrews.

"It's a golf course that I like and last year I was able to score pretty well there, so I look forward to that challenge," he said. "I do think it helps. I'll hopefully get some good mojo going and just ride it into Sunday."

Sweden's Joakim Lagergren had the day's outstanding round at Kingsbarns, a bogey-free 62 that left him a single shot behind leader Matthew Jordan as he heads to the Old Course.

RAHM PLAYS FATHER CHRISTMAS FOR DAD

The Spanish Ryder Cup player has teamed up with his father as a thank you for the support his parents gave him

Jon Rahm has revealed that his decision to play the Alfred Dunhill Links Championship was a Christmas present to his father, Edorta.

The father-and-son team, pictured right on the Swilken Bridge with Rahm's mother Angela, are playing together for the first time in the Team Championship, and Rahm admits it has been a long time in the planning.

"When I thought about it last year, I believed it fitted into my schedule," said Rahm, who finished runner-up to Danny Willett in the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth last week. "So it was sort of a Christmas present for my dad, and he's been looking forward to it for a long time. I heard he was practising non-stop last week.

"He plays a lot of golf, but this is going to be a different experience. Both my parents have done so much for me, so it's great to be able to do something for him."

It may be that Team Rahm will get to play in front of the galleries tomorrow as they ended their second round yesterday at nine-under-par in the Team Championship, likely too far behind the front runners to make the Top 20 who play on the final day.

RORY TAKES ROUTE 66

World No 2 Rory McIlroy was in fine form with a 66 at Kingsbarns. He had an eagle and three pars in the first five holes and, watched by playing partner Eddie Pepperell, hit this fine drive at the spectacular 7th hole. Today he moves on to the Old Course for his third round.

KLITSCHKO HOOKED ON POSITIVE APPROACH

Wladimir Klitschko used to bring the same intensity to his golf game as he did to the boxing ring. That approach did not serve the former world heavyweight champion well, however, and he now claims that a more relaxed outlook has been key to improving his fortunes on the course.

The former heavyweight boxing champion is paired with Austrian professional Matthias Schwab in the Team Championship and their team finished the second round at Carnoustie on seven-under-par. That left them some way off the pace but the 43-year-old Ukrainian remains positive about his new perspective on the game.

Klitschko said: "I'm enjoying myself and I'm not getting too crazy about it because that approach made me almost quit golf. My expectation levels were very high in boxing, but when I turned to golf there was nothing happening and I felt like I was the worst player ever.

"I was so upset with myself and there's not anyone who can influence your game. Okay, you can get a coach but it is really all about yourself. I had moments when I said 'why am I doing this to myself?'

"I'd be in a bad mood and everyone around me would know all about it. My attitude now is to enjoy myself and take it easy. It's a long process, but I'm improving and I'm definitely better than last year."

The Alfred Dunhill Links Championship celebrates links golf at its finest and is played over the Old Course at St Andrews, the Championship Course at Carnoustie and Kingsbarns Golf Links. The final round, after the cut is made tonight, is played over the Old Course.

With a total prize fund of US$5million, there are two separate competitions - an individual professional tournament and a Team Championship, in which each professional is paired with an amateur.

LIPSKY CHASING DUNHILL DOUBLE

The Californian won the Alfred Dunhill Championship in South Africa in December and was on the charge yesterday

American pro David Lipsky shot an eight-under-par 64 around Kingsbarns to move closer to a possible double of Alfred Dunhill golf titles.

The 31-year-old Californian won last December's Alfred Dunhill Championship at Leopard Creek in South Africa in his first appearance at that event and now, in his fourth Alfred Dunhill Links, he moved swiftly through the field to reach the halfway mark at seven-under-par for the tournament.

It will surely take two more low rounds for Lipsky to contend for the title, but he was understandably in great spirits after what he described as "my best ever round on a links golf course."

He added: "Both Dunhill events are ones all the players enjoy - it was great to win at Leopard Creek. The support for golf from Alfred Dunhill is unbelievable."

Lipsky's win in South Africa was his second European Tour title - he also won the 2014 Omega European Masters in Switzerland.

ST ANDREWS SET FOR FIREWORKS TONIGHT

The St Andrews night sky will come alive with a spectacular fireworks display tonight – the eve of the final day of this year's Alfred Dunhill Links Championship. The fireworks display has become an annual favourite with golfers, visiting spectators and residents of St Andrews and is not to be missed, following the third round of the Championship.

After a series of gigs in various venues across the town last night, this is another event that makes the Alfred Dunhill Links a week to remember for more than the golf. The display begins at 8.25pm, on the West Sands, adjacent to the Old Course. The best view will be from Links Road, behind the 17th green on the Old Course, or from the track in front of the Old Course Hotel.

THE PRIDE AND THE PASSION

CELEBRATING 35 YEARS OF ALFRED DUNHILL GOLF AT ST ANDREWS

Two beautiful trophies that reflect in one stunning picture one of tournament golf's most cherished partnerships.

In a sport where history and tradition matter, St Andrews is celebrating the 35th year that Alfred Dunhill has been supporting golf in this unique location.

From 1985 to 2000, three-man teams from countries around the world came to St Andrews to represent their nation and compete for the prestigious Alfred Dunhill Cup (right). Legends of the game such as Tiger Woods, Nick Faldo, Seve Ballesteros, Greg Norman, and Ernie Els played in front of packed galleries at the Old Course.

Then, from 2001, professionals and amateurs joined together in a unique celebration of links golf at its finest, the Alfred Dunhill Links

Championship, which creates a remarkable spirit of camaraderie and fun – as well as brilliant golf.

Now we are waiting to see which of the pro's in this year's world-class field will be holding the famous trophy on the Swilken Bridge tomorrow afternoon.

RYDER CUP CAN EXTEND IRISH ERA

Irish golfers have claimed 10 Major titles in 12 years, from Padraig Harrington's win at the 2007 Open Championship to Shane Lowry's success at the same event in 2019 – and both men now have a vested interest in the 2026 Ryder Cup in Adare, County Limerick.

For Lowry, pictured left with JP McManus and Harrington, it is a chance to complete a circle that started in 2006 – when he was a teenager watching Harrington star in the Ryder Cup's previous Irish incarnation, at the K Club.

"I was at the last Ryder Cup in Ireland as a spectator," he said. "It's going to be an incredible venue and I just hope I'm not too old to play."

Harrington is the Ryder Cup captain for 2020 and is delighted the event is coming back to Ireland. "It guarantees succession in Irish golf," said Harrington, who shot a 68 at Kingsbarns yesterday to be seven-under-par. "We've had a great run – we're winning majors and that wasn't happening when I was starting out. No matter what, in 2026 golf will still be a big deal in Ireland."

OLD COURSE

St Andrews is the Home of Golf and the Old Course is at its heart. The most famous golf course in the world, it measures 7,318 yards, has a par of 72 and radiates a sense of history. As the weather changes, it can be benign one day and a mighty challenge the next, but throughout it remains the greatest stage on which golf is played.

KINGSBARNs

Kingsbarns is comfortably the youngest of the three courses, having been opened as recently as 1999, but it is a classic in the making and is beginning to earn a formidable reputation. Loved by golfers for its picturesque backdrop with fine views over the North Sea, it measures 7,227 yards with a par of 72.
